

Anticipate January Conference

Government Hopes United Nations Will Meet in Washington On World Peace Plan

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(P)—Undersecretary of State Stettinius disclosed today that the United States government hopes for a United Nations conference next January on world security, possibly following a Roosevelt-Churchill-Stalin meeting late this year to complete the Dumbarton Oaks plan.

The January conference, Stettinius speculated, may be preceded by a Pan-American meeting for the purpose of discussing hemispheric questions raised by proposed conversion of the United Nations into a peace-preserving league.

Discussing these points at a press conference, the undersecretary acknowledged for the first time that the unexpected prolonging of the four-power planning conferences at Dumbarton Oaks had thrown the tentative schedule for the next move on world organization out of line.

Stettinius was reminded that Secretary Hull said early in the summer that he hoped for a general United Nations conference before the end of this year and was asked whether that hope had been abandoned.

In reply, Stettinius said that the Dumbarton Oaks meeting ran about a month longer than anticipated and then concluded with a plan which is incomplete.

FDR Will Be Tired

Some weeks ago, Stettinius said, he had held out slender hope that the time schedule might not be changed. Now, however, it should be borne in mind that President Roosevelt will be very busy for the next two weeks or so, Stettinius continued, and then he will be very tired.

It is a question, Stettinius said, whether or not the president will be able to arrange a meeting with the other great men, as he termed them, right away.

Asked whether there definitely would be a meeting of the chiefs of state to fill out the gaps in the Dumbarton Oaks planning, Stettinius said that was one of several methods which might be used. The others, he said, included diplomatic interchanges or a sort of second Dumbarton Oaks.

Invitations In December

Perhaps, the undersecretary continued, it will be possible to send invitations out in December and there may be a conference held sometime in the early winter, meaning January.

Certainly, Stettinius said, the fact that a national election is being held is a consideration in the time schedule now contemplated, but he did not say just how it modified the plans.

For the moment, Stettinius said that he is planning another meeting this week with the ambassadors of the other American nations to discuss the Dumbarton Oaks plan. While no formal request has been made for a Pan-American conference on the subject, he said that should be made the American government would fall in line.

All stamps to be validated will be good indefinitely.

Capt. Ellsworth Green Meets Friend in India

Capt. Ellsworth Green, secretary of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce, on leave for the duration, is in service in India, according to a letter received today by Miss Marie Weller, acting secretary.

He stated that he was very much surprised when he walked into the classification office to find the officer in charge Capt. Thomas Abdo, stationed for a while at the Sedalia Army Air Field, who lived at 815 South Barrett avenue, and who was a friend of Capt. Green's here.

Martial Law Is Lifted In Hawaii

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(P)—President Roosevelt today lifted martial law and restored the privilege of habeas corpus in Hawaii, ending almost three years of military law which began with the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor December 7, 1941.

The President issued a proclamation terminating martial law and at the same time the White House made public a proclamation by Ingram M. Stainback, territorial governor of Hawaii, also restoring the writ of habeas corpus and terminating martial law. The President's proclamation becomes effective immediately.

Mr. Roosevelt also issued an executive order directing Secretary of War Stimson to designate a military commander for Hawaii and authorizing military areas so that precautions can be taken against attacks in the territory.

Majority of Prisoners Are Airmen

Public Can Expect More Infantry To be Reported

By Margaret Kernodle

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(P)—“Dear Mom and Pop, don't worry!” write nine out of ten of the 65,000 or more American prisoners of war in their letters from enemy prison camps.

Army officials today revealed this typical plea to the folks back home during the first press tour of the Prisoner of War Information Bureau at the U. S. War Department. This is the “only official source of information in the United States concerning Americans who are in prison camps of our enemies,” they said.

Americans held by enemies also include approximately 10,000 civilian internees, about 75 per cent held by the Japanese, in addition to the military men and civilians who worked with U. S. services who are counted as war prisoners. About 500 women civilians are held in German camps, but no nurses or Wacs.

How To Get Word

Quickest way to get word of a prisoner of war is to write the Prisoners of War Information Bureau, Provost Marshal General's office, War Department, Washington, D. C. This bureau has copies of all information coming into this country about war prisoners.

Even information written by prisoners to relatives or friends is included in the files.

The public can expect more infantrymen reported as war prisoners soon, but so far the majority have been airmen, the bureau officials said.

German prison camps where Americans often are reported to be include Dulag Luft where all airmen go first; Oberwesel on the bank of the Rhine where the enemy pumps them for information; Stalag Luft I, about 100 miles southeast of Berlin and Stalag Luft III, with a view of the bay across from Sweden, the camp where all airmail is censored.

All German camps have been inspected but the Red Cross has visited only those Japanese prison camps in Japan, Formosa, Shanghai and Manchuria. The Japanese have claimed that military security prevents inspection of camps in the Philippines, the Dutch East Indies, Burma and Indo-China.

Three Days Registration

Voters in Sedalia, who have not before registered, who have moved from one precinct to another and those who have just passed their twenty-first birthday, will be given an opportunity to register on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. Registration will be held in the police station at the city hall, Second street and Osage avenue.

The board of registrars of Sedalia, of which Mrs. Eugene Miller is chairman, has announced the above days for registration. The registrars will be at the city hall from 8 o'clock in the morning until 8 o'clock at night, each day. These registration dates are fixed for the purpose of permitting non-registered voters to register ten days prior to the general election to be held on Tuesday, November 7.

Both political parties have already begun arranging for automobiles to take voters to the city hall for registrations. Those persons who are unable to walk to the city hall may call either the Democratic or Republican headquarters.

Sgt. Helfrich Missing Since October Fifth

Was Tail Gunner On B-17 Bomber in European Area

A tail gunner on a B-17 bomber, Sgt. Joseph C. Helfrich, 19, has been missing in action since October 5 in the European theatre of war, according to a message from the war department received Monday evening by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Helfrich, 2400 South Collins avenue.

The telegram, from J. A. Ulio, adjutant general, read:

“The secretary of war desires me to express his deep regret that your son, Sgt. Joseph C. Helfrich, has been reported missing in action since October 5 over Germany. If further details or other information are received you will be notified.”

Sgt. Helfrich, who graduated from Smith-Cotton high school with the class of 1943, entered service August 4 of that year. He was sent to Buckley Field, Denver, Colo., and later took his gunnery training and received his wings at Kingman, Ariz. His final training was taken at Pyote, Texas.

Here During Summer

He visited in Sedalia late in the summer on a 24-hour delay and was sent to England the first week of August. Even though overseas for only a short time Sgt. Helfrich wrote his parents in a letter received by them September 25 that if he completed seven more missions he would receive a furlough.

Sgt. Helfrich has a brother, William, 15, who is a member of the sophomore class at Smith-Cotton high school and a sister, Mrs. H. W. Ray of St. Louis.

The young gunner attended the grade school in St. Louis and his eighth grade and freshman years were taken in Warrensburg school. His family then moved to Sedalia and he was a student at Smith-Cotton high school for three years. Sgt. Helfrich was born in St. Louis February 8, 1925.

Chest Drive Still Lagging

Sedalia's War Chest Fund drive is still lagging. No reports have been received from the county, outside the city, and it is hoped when they are brought in they will be equal to, or even better than the 1943 returns.

In Sedalia the total amount subscribed to date is only $17,000, which with the returns from the county, will be far from the more than $37,000 quota. However, all returns in the city are not in. Many workers have not completed their solicitations and Heber U. Hunt, general chairman, asks them to bring them in as soon as possible.

Challenge RAF Heavy Bombers

By Henry B. Jameson

LONDON, Oct. 24.—(P)—Strong forces of German night fighters saved for defense of prize targets, swarmed over Essen last night to challenge a fleet of 1000 RAF bombers which attacked the great armament and railway center in the heart of the Ruhr.

The bombers, which flew through the first heavy snowstorm of the season over the western front, also encountered the fiercest ground barrage they have met on their last seven trips to the Ruhr.

While the heavies were unloading their bombs at Essen a small force of fast mosquitos shot on across northern Germany and attacked Berlin.

Major Speech By Roosevelt In Chicago

Date Not Made Known; Democratic Rally Saturday

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—(P)—President Roosevelt will deliver a major campaign speech in Chicago sometime after his Friday appearance in Philadelphia's Shibe park.

Presidential secretary Stephen Early announced the Chicago speech today but told reporters he did not have the date. However, Mayor Edward J. Kelly of Chicago has announced a big Democratic rally for that city next Saturday, the day after the president's Philadelphia speech.

Early broke the news of the Chicago speech by telling reporters that Mr. Roosevelt would spend most of the day working on his “speeches.” Then, in response to a query, he mentioned Chicago and Philadelphia. Early did not make any reference to other appearances by the president, but both Boston and Cleveland are regarded as likely appearance spots for the president.

May Return To New York
Most campaign observers believe that Chicago will be the most western point for the president's campaigning. They have been speculating that Mr. Roosevelt probably will make another appearance in New York City where he delivered a major foreign policy address last Saturday.

Also on the speculative list is a Detroit appearance, but it has not been mentioned by the White House.

Mr. Roosevelt kept his calendar clear today to work on his addresses. He had only two engagements; a lunch date with W. Averell Harriman, ambassador to Russia who was this country's representative at the recent Churchill-Stalin conferences. The only other engagement was Tuesday's regular late afternoon news conference.

Americans Place Bridgehead Link Between Leyte—Luzon; Fierce Battle At Belgian Port

Canadian Troops Cut Causeway Leading to Islands In Schelde Estuary

By William Frye

LONDON, Oct. 24.—(P)—British troops drove into the outskirts of the Dutch road hub of 'S Hertogenbosch today in one phase of a Canadian-British squeeze offensive against perhaps 40,000 German troops battling to hold southwestern Holland and to maintain a blockade of the great supply port of Antwerp.

An assault ring was shaping around 'S Hertogenbosch, with the northernmost British column reaching the city. Scottish troops swinging up from the south cut the road leading to Eindhoven.

Nearly 50 miles to the west, the Canadians cut off the causeway to the Schelde estuary islands, where enemy cannon block the sea route to Antwerp, and fought to within from three to five miles of the strongholds of Roosendaal and Bergen op Zoom.

A dispatch from Supreme Allied headquarters in Paris said that Canadian units fighting to clear the south bank of the Schelde estuary held the ferry port of Breskens firmly today and were along or across a road all the way to Schoondijke, three miles south of Breskens. The Germans have been squeezed into a pocket in this area.

An earlier dispatch had reported that the Canadians who took Breskens Sunday had withdrawn from the town and that a confused situation prevailed there.

Demolition patrols which moved a half-mile beyond Breskens to Fort Frederik-Hendrik withdrew, presumably leaving that bastion's powerful coastal batteries out of action. Neither side now occupies the fort, the Paris dispatch said.

North of Antwerp, Canadian troops cut the causeway leading to the islands in the Schelde estuary. Their artillery previously had commanded this area.

No Major Gains

Along the main 475-mile front facing east toward Germany persistent Allied pressure scored no major gains, and the winter's first widespread snow sharpened the plague of weather which has hampered the Allied armies for weeks.

Front reports indicated that the Germans in the 'S Hertogenbosch area were suffering from lack of artillery support. The British were using a powerful force of infantry, tanks and artillery.

Three British columns drove on the cathedral city and Dutch provincial capital. The northernmost one, having captured the village of Romsdal, clawed its way westward into the outskirts of 'S Hertogenbosch during the early morning darkness. Two more columns slashed their way toward that communications hub and bastion of the Germans' west Holland line from the south and east.

Near Po Valley Junction Town

By Lynn Heinzerling

ROME, Oct. 24.—(P)—American troops of the Fifth Army battling down the northern slopes of the Apennines approached today within four miles of Castel San Pietro, large Po valley junction town on the Rimini highway 13 miles southeast of Bologna.

Supreme headquarters announced this American column had captured the village of Frassineto, southeast of Castel San Pietro, after a heavy battle. Rough terrain still lay ahead.

Thick minefields, demolitions and barbed wire entanglements held up another force advancing on dominating Monte Belmonte. A communication said the most bitter fighting centered around that feature.

On the southeast other Fifth army troops drove for two and one-half miles along the highway to Imola, another junction point on the Rimini-Bologna road, and captured the village of Fontanelice. It lies seven miles southwest of Imola.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Oct. 24.—(P)—A spokesman for the estate of the late John Sanford, carpet manufacturer, said today he had “no doubt” that Sanford's daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Sanford Le Gendre, was the person described in a Berlin broadcast as the “first American woman” captured on the western front.

Powerful Red Army Captures 400 Towns

Penetrate German Territory to Depth Of About 19 Miles

By Daniel De Luce
MOSCOW, Oct. 24.—(P)—Russian penetration of German territory to a depth of at least 19 miles in East Prussia was proclaimed today in the first Moscow announcement of a powerful Red army offensive that already has captured 400 Nazi towns and villages.

Summarizing results of a thrust from western Lithuania that the Germans have been reporting for a week, a Russian communication said Gen. Ivan D. Cherniakhovsky's Third White Russian army had broken through frontier defenses on an 87-mile front on the east.

Gen. Ivan C. Bagramian's First Baltic army cleared the way to spring into the homeland of the Junkers from the north—and may already have done so.

The Soviet bulletin announced Bagramian's troops had occupied all of Memel territory except the port of Memel itself, where the German garrison was cut off, and had massed along the Niemen river, East Prussia's northern border, from the Baltic to Jurbarkas in Lithuania.

Twenty salvos from each of Moscow's 224 victory guns saluted the achievements of the Cherniakhovsky and Bagramian armies—disclosed on a day that brought announcement of nearly 1,500 towns seized by Red armies from the Norwegian border in the Arctic to Yugoslavia in the south.

Cherniakhovsky's offensive, which gave the Russians a solid footing on German soil for the first time, drove directly westward on each side of the main highway and rail routes from Kaunas, Lithuania, to Interburg and Konigsberg. Interburg, a hub of five railways 37 miles from the border, appeared the immediate strategic prize.

MacArthur's Forces Liberate 11 Towns, Push Through Mud, Bitter Jap Resistance

WITH GEN. MACARTHUR LEYTE ISLAND, Philippines, Oct. 20.—(Via Army Radio)—(Delayed)—(P)—Four thousand armed and organized guerrillas, including a few Americans, aided in preparations of the landing of the U. S. forces on Leyte Island and will join with the Yanks in battling the Japanese.

By C. Yates McDaniel

GEN. MACARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Philippines, Oct. 24.—(P)—American liberators of 11 towns in the central Philippines drove ahead on Leyte island today through almost impassable mud and bitterly resisting Japanese.

(Press dispatches from the front to the Melbourne Herald in Australia reported an American tank column had established a bridgehead on Samar island, the link between Leyte and Luzon islands.

(The Herald's correspondent,

By Richard C. Bergholz
WITH AMERICAN RANGERS, THE PHILIPPINES, Oct. 19.—(Delayed)—(P)—Loreto, first large Filipino town to be liberated in the American drive back to the Philippines, greeted its deliverers with tears, cheers and ceremonies.

Many of the 7,000 people of Loreto, largest town on Dinagat Island at the mouth of Leyte Gulf, swarmed over the beach to welcome the American Rangers who landed nine miles north of Loreto two days ago.

Blaine Fielder, reported the tank column was ferried across narrow San Juanico strait Monday from a highway point above Tacloban, provincial capital of Leyte and provisional seat of the constitutional Philippines government.

(Fielder's dispatch from Tacloban, cleared by military censors, said Gen. Douglas MacArthur capitalized on the rapid advance on northern Leyte to send his troops to the fifth island to be invaded since his return to the Philippines.

(Invasion of Samar was not mentioned by other correspondents nor by MacArthur's own communication today.

(A road leads up the west coast of Samar from the shores opposite Tacloban to the northern tip, 15 miles southeast of Luzon on which Manila is situated).

U. S. Sixth army troops moved northwestward from Tacloban, at the northern tip of the 20-mile Leyte east coast front, and slid through swamps in the southern sector from Dulag. Muck and slime, proved a greater obstacle in the south than the Japanese, and sometimes left the advancing Yanks without the support of their tanks.

The coast road south from Tacloban to Palo was entirely in American hands.

Palo and Dulag anchored the westbound arms of a potential trap reaching out to engulf Nipponese 16th Division elements—the torturers at Bataan—in a 140-square mile area bounded on the east by the coast and on the west by a valley road from Burauen to Santa Fe.

Marked progress was reported today in a communique on the Dulag south arm toward Burauen. After menacing Nipponese position.

PAC Creates no Feeling Among Farmers

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 24.—(P)—Sen. Harry S. Truman, Democratic nominee for vice-president, declared today that the activity of the Political Action Committee in behalf of the Democratic ticket was having no adverse effect among the farmers.

“The farmers are waking up to the fact the best friend they ever had is now in the White House,” Sen. Truman said at a press conference.

Asked if he had found isolationist sentiment in the middle west, Truman answered, “No—because they know how I feel on that.”

Merry-go-Round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 — Gov. Dewey's efficient campaign team shows the effect of something which they won't admit — namely, that he has been running for president since 1937.

He has put his team together player by player, like a good football coach. There are writers, researchers, economists, publicists, scholars and journalists. Each man has his specialty, each knows he must stay in his place, not move over the line into another man's field.

When Dewey and suave, tough-tempered Herbert Brownell decide that the GOP candidate is to make a speech, the team starts clicking. There is little waste motion.

First, the Brain Trust huddles. The Brain Trust includes: industrious, quiet, studious John Burton, chief researcher and also New York state budget director; keen-eyed Elliot Bell, principal ghost-writer, who is to Dewey what Colonel House was to Woodrow Wilson; personal secretary Paul Lockwood, the man with the best political sense in the entourage; tense, hawk-like, bespectacled young Jim Hagerty, ex-New York Times man; Hickman Powell, who describes himself as Dewey's "friend," was once chief ghost writer and now occupies a somewhat minor role.

Aides Go Into Huddle

Huddles are held in Albany's rather stuffy gubernatorial mansion study or, in good weather, at the swimming pool behind the mansion, built originally for Franklin Roosevelt. Each man hears Dewey's ideas on the theme of the talk, discusses his own ideas briefly. None presses too hard, all know Dewey cracks down on persistent people.

After the huddle, the team gets to work. Lockwood arranges the travel details, gets in touch with state chairmen, orders the train, bounces around like a mother hen over the rest of the brood. Elliot Bell meets with Dewey alone, discusses ideas further. Burton takes his staff to the eleventh floor of the DeWitt Clinton hotel, briefs them on the speech, turns them loose digging up facts and figures, researching for damaging target areas in the New Deal no-man's land.

After 48 hours, all drafts, memos, facts and figures go to Bell, with whom everything is cleared. Bell takes phrases and facts from the best memos, then whips up a draft of his own. This is the first draft Dewey sees.

Experts for Everything

When speeches are being prepared, Bell, Lockwood and Dewey huddle with Budget Director Burton, plus whoever is the chief expert on the speech on hand. For farm speeches, the expert is Hickman Powell; for labor speeches, it's Mel Petzele; for economics, it's Bell and Burton themselves; for foreign policy speeches John Foster Dulles or Herbert Hoover may be consulted.

Bell and Dewey read over the product, then retire to whip up another and perhaps final draft. This goes to Burton for rechecking on facts and figures, to Lockwood for ideas on what political bruises it might leave, to quiet, pipe-puffing Harold Keller for final "copy reading," to check possible errors and then to Publicist Jim Hagerty and occasionally, Poll-Taker George Gallup for ideas on news value.

Before any speech is released to the press, Mrs. Dewey sees a draft

GERMANY WILL TRY IT AGAIN

By Sigrid Schultz

Copyright, 1944, by Sigrid Schultz. Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1919 to 1941, Sigrid Schultz saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II. And she saw the behind-the-scenes preparation for the coming "war-in-peace" that she warns may culminate in World War III. This is the story of Germany's plans to win the peace, plans that even now are being put into effect.

XXI

UNDER the Versailles Treaty about 20 German factories were allowed to continue producing war equipment for the Reichswehr and the number of the standing army was set at 100,000 men.

As the creator of the Reichswehr, and consequently of the Wehrmacht, General von Seeckt put it, "We know how to make the best of the situation." In the early 1920's ranking German officers admitted that they had evolved a perfect system of training men for two years and then sending them out to other parts of the country to drill recruits. The Allies had stipulated that Reichswehr soldiers must serve 12 years, in order to prevent the short-term enlistments which the Prussians had introduced into the army with which they chased Napoleon out of their territory. But making a rule and enforcing it are two different things. By the end of the 1920's, there should have been a great number of men in the Reichswehr nearing or over 30. Nobody watching a Reichswehr parade ever saw more than a few.

BEFORE long the restrictions on the construction of German planes, on their speed and power, were dropped. They had to be commercial planes, of course. But the most casual traveler in Europe soon knew that Germany flew passenger planes without any passengers, to innumerable towns where there could be no air freight, so that the crews could gain experience.

Nobody needs reminding of the importance of the gliders which German "enthusiasts" took up to compensate for lack of regular planes with engines. We know how their use was co-ordinated with powered planes for war transport.

Often at army maneuvers I saw odd little cardboard contraptions bearing huge signs. "Tanks," they said. The Germans pointed to them indignantly as symbols of the humiliation and shackles of Versailles. This complaint was fine propaganda to stir up German resentment. In reality German tank builders circumvented those restrictions, too.

During the 1920's we saw huge busses on German city streets, with six and eight-wheel chassis. The authorities assured us that they had no military significance. But those undercarriages had been designed for war trucks and were developed and so used after 1939.

WITH open rearmament, with the German army constantly enlarging and training its personnel, and backed by the full industrial might of the nation, Hitler took three bold steps. He invaded the Rhineland, he proclaimed conscription, he announced through Goering the creation of a superlative air force.

But with the Beer Hall Putsch General Ludendorff's pupil had learned one indelible lesson in caution. How could he be absolutely sure that the armaments, the troops, were as fine as the High Command said they were? He must try them out before he risked the big game.

Secretly, by devious methods, German soldiers reached Spain, Ambassador von Stohrer, General von Faupel, the whole considerable body of Germans in Spain, reinforced by all the young men who could, under some pretext, claim Spanish or South American citizenship, prepared the big rehearsal of the German army. When the friction between the different Spanish groups broke out, the Germans were there, ready to try their organizations and successive deliveries of weapons.

The weapons were good. The men and the reinforcements which followed the first groups got battle training. The officers' tactics were found satisfactory, although some of the new ones had still to be kept secret.

Germany was ready for war.

BUT Germany didn't want war; she was "encircled" by her enemies, who "forced" war upon her.

Nobody who has seen German officials and German businessmen work overtime, for very little money, will insult his own intelligence or their industry by assuming that they had no plan. We will hear again and again for years after the Second World War that we wronged them, that they had no military ambitions, no dream of world conquest.

But there was a time when they gave themselves away. During the period when victory seemed to be within grasp, the Nazis in Berlin not only gloated over their triumphs, but they even talked freely of the long preparations they had undertaken and of the limitless horizon of their future campaigns.

And not only the big fellows talked. Little men who had grown colorless in their work, men of the Ministry of Economics, plant officials, people who had never made enough money to keep their teeth in repair, suddenly came to life.

They talked about the glittering future of Germany, or the years of secret preparations, of study and scheming behind them, and they made one realize that nothing in the world would make them give up their vision of world mastery for Germany.

They were the unknown soldiers of bureaucracy, humble men, yet dangerous enough. For they have worked for the German secret general staff to bring about World War II and to win it. And they will continue to work during the war-in-peace to follow.

and makes suggestions. She is considered a barometer on how the average woman voter will react.

On the night before its delivery, Dewey reads over the speech a half dozen times, has his confidential secretary, blonde, little, tireless Lillian Rosse, type it over in large, readable type. Dewey's own copy of the speech then goes to Lockwood, whose job it is to lay the manuscript on the rostrum when Dewey appears on the platform.

If He Can't Lick 'Em, He Hires 'Em

Dewey has had his tiffs along the trail to the big leagues. Opponents he couldn't lick he has signed up for his team. One good example is young Jim Hagerty of the New York Times. Hagerty covered Albany, also covered Dewey's 1940 presidential candidacy bid, frequently annoyed Dewey with his questions. Dewey once denounced Hagerty, charged him with misquoting a speech about Ham Fish. Another time, Dewey bawled Hagerty out because the Times didn't run one of his speeches on page one. But when Dewey's press relations reached an all-time low after he became governor, he hired Hagerty, gave him plenty of elbow room to straighten out diplomatic relations between himself and the Fourth Estate.

Hagerty has succeeded in getting the press to like him, has not been too successful in getting the press to like his boss.

Dewey hired Elliott Bell after Bell helped lick him for the 1940 GOP nomination. In that race, Bell was an intimate of Wendell Willkie, helped steer Willkie's campaign. Another ex-Dewey aide, youthful Lem Jones, worked for Dewey, couldn't stand him, stayed with Willkie until his death.

Lockwood Talks Back
Lockwood, sole original member of the Dewey ball club, who still remains in the inner circle, joined Dewey when the GOP nominee was appointed district attorney. Lockwood, ex-Brooklyn reporter, then working up a thriving law practice, was told by friends: "Dewey won't ever amount to much." A bachelor, weighing close to 240 pounds, Lockwood slaved night and day for Dewey, helped him win many a big law case because he enjoyed staying in the office at night reading criminal reports on pending prosecutions, found them better reading than detective stories.

Despite his bulk, which he carries around at a tireless pace night and day, Lockwood sleeps little, used to spend the early hours of the morning at the Stork club, New York, finally gave up the night club life when Dewey won the nomination. Lockwood's ease with people also went a long way toward selling hard-headed politicians on Dewey and bringing the "financial fatcats" in to stake the Result of this experience is that Lockwood is almost the only man outside of GOP national committee chairman Herbert Brownell who can talk back to Dewey, make him listen and like it.

Dewey's research department on the eleventh floor of the DeWitt Clinton hotel is known as the "squirrel cage," is off limits for newsmen.

Dewey Sidelights

The Duke and Duchess of Windsor attracted attention during Governor Dewey's foreign policy speech in New York, when they sat in a front box, applauded the GOP nominee's attacks on the New Deal foreign policy. . . . Information, please expert "F. P. A." candidate for the state senate in Connecticut, walked in front of Dewey wearing an FDR button. . . . Mrs. Vincent Astor waxed enthusiastic over Orson Welles' rebuttal to Dewey, while Editor Ogden Reid yawned. . . . Welles is proving one of the most dynamic Roosevelt speakers, campaigns nightly at mass meetings. . . . Welles loves to appear in the enemy camp, battle it out with hostile audiences. His voice is so deep and booming he can outshout the hooters. . . . Dewey has had almost phenomenal luck with the weather during his campaign thus far. In more than 11,000 miles of travel since nominated, he has never had rain on any

When He Comes Home...then what?

THAT'S OUR RESPONSIBILITY!

Our boys . . . millions of them . . . your boys, your neighbors' boys . . . are fighting in the far corners of the earth to preserve a way of life that is dear to the hearts of all Americans . . . Free Enterprise.

American Free Enterprise . . . the priceless heritage of the American Citizen, protected by our Constitution and Bill of Rights . . . has made us the richest and most envied nation on earth.

It has created successively higher standards of living for all Americans. In each succeeding decade, the luxuries of the rich have become the necessities of the poor.

It has created more jobs and more prosperity than any other system known to man.

What IS This "Free Enterprise"?

American Free Enterprise has been variously defined . . .

"the right of every American to work as hard as he pleases, to give his family comfort, education and happiness."

again . . .

"the typically American individual right to work without fear for rewards without limit."

and again . . .

"the right of every individual to work, rest, spend, save, invest, risk, create, build, produce, manage, compete or cooperate, while remaining free from public or private regimentation or dictation."

American Free Enterprise guarantees every citizen full freedom of choice . . . of education, of vocation, of selecting his employer or engaging in business, of saving or investing, and of earning a fair profit on his labor or investment . . . without being impoverished by taxation.

Consider, in contrast, the way of life against which our boys are waging this bloody war. Under Nazism and its Japanese counterpart, the individual merely occupies a cell in the prison called the State, with no rights he can assert against a cruel, autocratic government. Free press, free radio, free assembly, free labor unions, free worship, free elections . . . all are ruthlessly ground under the iron heel.

Shall We Preserve Our Way of Life?

"We shall nobly save or meanly lose the last best hope on earth"—Abraham Lincoln.

When we entered this great world conflict, the people of America willingly, patriotically turned over to their leaders unprecedented powers, relinquished many of their accustomed freedoms for the duration.

The transaction was a loan, not a deed . . . and we must make certain that those powers are withdrawn when war's emergency has ended.

We must insist government again restore the freedom of individual action, with interference in our ordinary affairs only to that minimum degree necessary to insure proper protection of the rights of others.

We must turn a deaf ear to those theorists or "planners" who would like to make the present regimentation permanent.

Yes . . . It's Up to US!

What will our boys find when they return? Will it be a future that promises the right to live, laugh and love . . . to engage in business for themselves . . . to live where they choose . . . to work at the kind of a job they like? Or will they be told what to do . . . deprived of the opportunity of exercising their own initiative?

We who have stayed on the home front must supply the answer.

Let us keep faith with our boys who are giving their all in this great struggle for freedom. Let us keep alive this precious birthright of theirs and ours . . . American Free Enterprise.

Dari Ann says

What dessert do you think of this time of year? Pumpkin pie with whipped cream? Umm! Here's a pumpkin pie recipe that's "different" for it has a slight orange taste, and with my own special topping—well, it's simply "out of this world."

Pumpkin Pie A La Daricraft

1 cup pumpkin
Brown in slightly buttered pan 10 min.
stirring occasionally as you prepare following—

- 1 1/2 cups DARICRAFT (undiluted)
- 1/4 cup brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon ginger
- 1/4 cup orange juice
- 2 eggs well beaten

Add to hot pumpkin, mix thoroughly and put in unbaked crust in oven at 450° for 10 min. Turn oven to 325° and bake 25 min.

Just before serving, top with following—

Topping

- 1/2 cup ice cold DARICRAFT
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon orange juice

Whip and add a grating of orange rind and 3 tablespoons sugar

Whip again and place in tray of refrigerator for at least 2 hours.

This is really SOMETHING to serve those "special guests." Of course you MUST use DARICRAFT to get that glorious flavor. DARICRAFT is that new "super" evaporated milk, you know, that is pure fresh jersey milk pasteurized and homogenized with nothing but 50% of the water removed, and ONLY Vitamin D added. It's DARICRAFT's special process that gives it that "special" flavor. Get some today at your grocers, and try it in your favorite recipe.

To Produce

Civilian Goods

Vacuum Cleaners

Lawn Mowers

In Spot Approval

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24—(AP)—

The War Production Board announced Monday that it had authorized $152,441,000 worth of civilian production in 772 manufacturing plants having labor and machinery not needed for war work.

Included are $10,735,000 worth of vacuum cleaners, $35,971,000 worth of bed springs and inner-spring mattresses, and $15,537,000 worth of household aluminum ware to be made over the next 12 months.

With WPB granting applications for such "spot" authorizations at a rate of 350 a week, the 12-month civilian production total is expected to climb rapidly in the next few weeks.

"Spot" authorizations for civilian production are those made "on the spot" by WPB field officers to take care of firms and workers left idle by war production cutbacks.

Allot To Small Plants

WPB said that plants employing fewer than 50 workers have received 71 per cent of all the "spot" approvals.

Consumers' durable goods accounted for more than two-thirds of the total volume of products approved. Among the items are $874,000 worth of lawn mowers,

$755,000 worth of typewriters, $1-

629,000 worth of electric irons in addition to production previously approved, a few bicycles, silverware, furniture, electric lamps, office supplies, church goods,

fountain pens, mechanical pencils, jewelry and sporting goods.

Harvesting machinery to a value of $5,091,000 was authorized, as well as automotive parts, building materials, and plumbing and heating items.

The WPB region for which Boston is headquarters had the largest number of approvals, 129; Kansas

City was second with 120 and Atlanta third with 109.

Some of the 772 manufacturing plants involved received more than one approval. The total number of approvals was about 1,000.

Conflict In

North Spain

LONDON, Tuesday, Oct. 24—

(AP)—Northern Spain is seething with armed conflict, the Spanish

National radio disclosed early today, as Spanish Republican forces wage persistent guerrilla warfare with Gen. Francisco Franco's regular Spanish army.

The National radio said the fighting was centered in Navarra on the Spanish-French frontier and other advances told of skirmishes at various points in the Pyrenees.

The extent of the uprising was not entirely clear.

Headquarters of the Spanish

Republicans in London said the guerrilla warfare to overthrow

Franco was mounting rapidly.

Franco's radio claimed that the

"infiltration of Spanish troops were gathered for a cleanup of guerrilla forces which had infiltrated into the Aran valley in the eastern Pyrenees west of Andorra

during the week.

Challenge Regulars

Latest reports indicated the guerrillas were in some strength as borne out by disclosures that they had challenged regular Spanish troops.

The Spanish radio identified them only as "groups" and ac-knowledgeed that some still were roaming the Navarra mountains.

Authoritative British sources said they had no reports of any general uprising in Spain.

A Spanish National radio broadcast, heard by the British ministry of information, gave what it described as an "eyewitness" report of the clashes at the frontier, saying:

"American soldiers disarmed several groups of Spanish Reds who re-crossed the frontier after being defeated and pursued by the Spanish forces guarding the Spanish-French frontier. Forty individuals were disarmed by soldiers of the French army.

"Fugitives are still roaming through the mountains of Navarra.

Some of them in groups are being pursued by the National forces.

PIN-WORMS

Now can be Beaten!

The miseries of Pin-Worms have been known for centuries, and many doctors have sought a way to deal with this treadacious pest that lives and grows inside the human body.

Today, thanks to an important scientific discovery, a new and highly effective treatment is being hailed by medical authorities.

It is based on a remarkable drug known as gentian violet. This drug is the vital element in P.W., the new Pin-Worm tablet developed by the laboratories of Dr. D.

Jayne & Son, America's leading specialists in worm diseases.

P.W. makes it unnecessary for you or your child to suffer in silence with the embarrassing rectal itch caused by Pinworms, or to take chances on the real distress they often create. The small, easy-to-take P.W. tablets act in a special way to destroy Pin-Worms.

So watch for possible warning signs such as: itching seat and nose, uneasy stomach, bed-wetting, nervous fidgeting. If you suspect Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for a package of P.W. and follow the simple directions carefully.

It is easy to remember: P-W for Pin-Worms!

Fierce Counterattacks
It was a different story at Palo. All Monday night, the Japanese counterattacked fiercely and it was not until this morning that it was broken bloody. Then the Americans resumed a slow push west of the liberated town of Palo which is six miles from the road junction of Santa Fe. The advance was contested along the main road.

There are signs that the Japanese have sensed the growing danger at the southern end and already are pulling out to the northwest.

Enemy rear guards at the extreme north end of the Leyte front retreated before First Cavalry troops which last night pushed three miles northwest of Tacloban, the new provisional capital of the Sergio Somena Philippines government.

Bringing Noted Democrats

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 24—(P)—The Democratic National committee is bringing into the state in the last two weeks of campaigning before the election a group of leading national speakers.

The speakers are being concentrated for the most part in the country districts where reports indicate the Democratic vote off from four years ago.

First of the scheduled speeches for this week by the out-of-town Democrats failed to materialize last night at Hannibal by the absence of Sen. Tom Stewart (D-Tenn.). The Democratic National committee announced earlier that the Tennessee senator would be unable to appear, but gave no other reason. Rep. Roy Hamlin, Hannibal lawyer and Democratic floor leader in the legislature, substituted for Senator Stewart at a political rally.

Among the national speakers brought into Missouri by Robert Hannegan, chairman, are: Gov. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma; Gov. J. Melville Broughton of North Carolina; Sen. Burnett A. Maybank of South Carolina; Sen. Carl A. Hatch of New Mexico; Congressman J. W. Fulbright of Arkansas, and Grover Hill of Texas, assistant secretary of agriculture.

Utterances Of FDR Called Contradictions

Bricker Cites Examples From New Deal Record

By E. E. Easterly
DENVER, Oct. 24—(P)—Gov. John Bricker Monday night cited what he called a "consistent pattern of contradictions" in President Roosevelt's utterances.

Then, referring to Republican presidential candidate Thomas E. Dewey, the Ohioan remarked: "What a relief it will be for the American people to listen to a man who does not talk in terms of expediency."

Bricker, Republican candidate for vice president, said Americans could understand when Prime Minister Churchill declared he did not intend to reside at the liquidation of the British empire, and when Premier Stalin advocated a strong Poland at Russia's frontiers.

"But when a new dealer speaks up," Bricker added in a prepared speech released by his campaign staff, "the only thing certain about what he says is that the stage is being set for another term for Mr. Roosevelt."

Bricker said that with "the usual hush-hush policy" President Roosevelt not long ago lifted immigration restrictions to admit to this country 1,000 refugees, who had been assembled in Italy.

Mr. Roosevelt, he continued, "explained that women and children would be in the majority," but upon arrival the group consisted "largely of men, x x x Not laboring men, either, but writers, lawyers, artists and intellectuals, generally."

Continuing, he said other examples from "the new deal record" were:

That the President in 1932 recommended a reduction in government costs and abolition of "useless offices," but under his administration the number of federal civil service employees increased from 568,345 to 3,112,963; that the President in 1940 said constant cooperation between the executive and legislative branches was necessary, but in 1944 Senator Alben Barkley (D-Kentucky) described a Roosevelt tax message as "a calculated and deliberate assault upon the legislative integrity of every member of congress."

That the President in 1941 declared "we will not x x x surrender the guarantee of liberty our forefathers framed for us in our bill of rights" yet Mr. Roosevelt has usurped powers greater than those of all other presidents of the United States combined.

"He has repeatedly attempted

Young Sculptress Has No Qualms On Wedding Eve

STAMFORD, Conn., Oct. 24—(P)—Major Horace Dodge, Jr., said Monday he had withdrawn his objections to the marriage at Denver, Colo., of his son, Cpl. Horace Dodge III, and Miss Margery B. Gehman.

The major said he was to leave for Denver tonight and when asked if he would act as his son's best man, said, "I believe I will if I'm asked."

DENVER, Oct. 24—(P)—Margery Gehman, slim young sculptress, has no qualms about her future happiness as the wife of the heir to one of America's largest motor fortunes.

"I'm not worried about how that money and publicity will affect our marriage. We're both fairly intelligent and we can handle anything that comes along," confidently declared the 20-year-old red head in an interview Monday.

Miss Gehman, daughter of the professor of mathematics at Buffalo university, and Cpl. Horace Dodge, III, 21, plan to be married when the groom's father Maj. Horace Dodge, Jr., multimillionaire, arrives in Denver. Cpl. Dodge is stationed at nearby Lowry Field.

"Maj. Dodge was expected to arrive today but in a telephone conversation with his son, the younger Dodge said his father, who was in Connecticut, had been delayed. Cpl. Dodge said his father expects to reach Denver at least by Thursday."

"His father's three marriages and divorces haven't embittered 'Bud' on the idea of marriage," Miss Gehman said. "Bud" has just washed his hands of the whole to deprive states of their rights, congress of its power, and the supreme court of its independence," said Bricker.

Live On Corporal's Salary

She said they plan to live on Dodge's corporal's salary and whatever the future Mrs. Dodge, III, can earn after they are married. She said she had worked for six months as an industrial artist at a Buffalo aviation plant.

"The only good thing about that money angle is that it got us an apartment in war-crowded Denver," she exclaimed laughingly as she related how a stranger, reading about them in the papers, had called and offered them a three-room apartment.

Asked about reports that Cpl. Dodge's father opposed their marriage, Miss Gehman said, "he telephoned 'Bud' that he wouldn't stop us—and he really can't you know."

"We're going to wait until he arrives and we want him to be best man. I've been with Major Dodge on two occasions and he was congenial and very pleasant."

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Merrill Gehman of Buffalo, N. Y., have no objection to the wedding, she said. They will not attend the ceremony, which will be held quietly in a Protestant church.

"We want four little boys and they'll probably be redheads, too," she said. "And, of course, the first one will be named Horace Dodge, IV."

KANSAS CITY, MO.
FRANK J. DEAN, MANAGING DIRECTOR

Society and Clubs

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elmer West, Westmarion Place, Broadmoor, Colorado Springs, Colo., former Sedalians, have sent cards to Sedalia friends announcing the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. October twenty-third — 1894-1944.

Mr. and Mrs. West were for many years residents of Sedalia. They have frequently returned to visit their friends here, and Sedalians who visit Colorado Springs are always their welcome guests.

It is interesting to note items on the marriage which appeared in the Democrat fifty years ago, such as:

October 14, 1894:
Charlie West to Wed
Mr. Charles E. West, with the W. A. Crawford Dry Goods house, will be married at Creston, Ia., on the evening of October 23, to Miss Marion Stanchfield of Creston, the ceremony being performed in that city by Rev. Allen J. VanWagner, a former Sedalian. After a bridal trip to Chicago, the young couple will be at home to their friends at No. 211 South Grand avenue, this city.

October 22, 1894:
Charlie E. West, Lin T. West and Fred Norton left yesterday for Creston, Ia., where the first-named gentleman will be wedded tomorrow as previously chronicled in these columns. Mr. Norton will officiate as "best man." October 28, 1894:

C. E. West and bride arrived from Chicago Friday evening and have been the recipients of congratulations on every hand since then.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Choulett, 1305 West Sixteenth street, had as weekend guests Mrs. Choulett's sisters and their husbands, Sgt. and Mrs. Donald McFarland of Camp Campbell, Ky., and Mr. and Mrs. Duane Smith of Kansas City. Dinner guests Sunday were Mrs. Choulett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tavenner of Ottumwa, Miss Janie Tavenner of Kansas City and Mrs. Edith McFarland of this city.

Dr. Thomas A. Perry, head of the English department of Central College, Fayette, Mo., brought to his audience at Sorsolis on Monday afternoon, an address of great educational value on "The Latin American Renaissance in Literature." The speaker was introduced by Mrs. H. E. Lindstrom, chairman of the History and Literature department.

Dr. Perry said that he was particularly interested in the Latin American literature because his own boyhood had been spent in the West Indies. The Latin American countries saw the need of culture, music, literature and art and began first with the experimental stage of trying to create something artistic and second with the idea to look about home and write of things that were near to them.

The speaker went on to tell that the Latin American countries had a literature before the modernist movement but even after the nineteenth century, with the winning of political independence of many of the Latin American countries, they were still the spiritual slaves of Spain's culture. And then a philosopher of Latin America suggested that they look to the French culture, not copy it, but study it. And so the Latin American countries began to study the culture of other countries.

The new world was experimenting with a new type of society, a poet pointed out. It was democracy. Certain ideals in the democracy they believed were good. They saw the liberty as real, labor glorified and the preservation of individualism, but on the other hand they thought the new world had bad taste, a poor method of selecting leaders and the use of politics for growing influences. But they found in the new world isms a faith in the Spanish-Americanism and their poetry and literature as based on the scenes, the people and the problems of Latin America and realism of home.

THE BLACK BEAR TELLS YOU IT'S TIME FOR WINTER CAR PROTECTION

Bears "hole up" for the winter. Their problem is simple. A hollow tree trunk . . . a convenient cave and they never roll out till spring. You can't do that. Neither can your car. It has to roll out every day and take you places, no matter how tough the going.

That's why your car deserves a thorough check-up right now! Remember, this is the 4th War Winter it will be serving you. Why not ask your Plymouth, Dodge, De Soto or Chrysler dealer to look it over? He has tools to test and adjust it. He has factory-engineered and inspected parts. Things your car needs this 4th War Winter

Your Engine needs tuning for cold weather driving, for easy starting, to avoid stalling, and to compensate for low octane wartime gas. It needs lighter oil, too.

Your Electrical System Battery should be tested and recharged if necessary for cold weather starting. Also clean and tighten cable connections.

Your Cooling System needs flushing. All hose connections should be checked to prevent leaks. Replace hose if necessary. Add anti-freeze.

Your Braking System Adjust brakes so they function equally—for safety, and to save on tire wear. Re-line if necessary. Check stop light operation.

Interest in the various groups of people were written by the poets. Of the Negroes in our country there are two types of music, the spiritual and the blues, but in the Latin American countries there are three types, the lullabies, the peddler music and the dance. Dr. Perry quoted from each type, all of which formed brilliant images of the life and activity of their country.

There were novels of the jungles which were painted in morbid word pictures of those who sought the rubber sap in the forests, there were novels of the plains which were character creations of men who lived on the plains; there was Azuelo who wrote of the Mexican revolutions of which he said there was no purpose and no gains, they only bred disaster; the new group of poets who were extreme individualists, and from all of these the Spanish American countries have found the way to the pure Spanish atmosphere lacking now only a Shakespeare — or a Chaucer.

Mrs. Austin Hurley presided over the meeting.

The next meeting will be in charge of the civics department of which Mrs. Abe Bertman is chairman. Miss Minnie Alper, state case work supervisor of efferson City will speak on "State Institutions and State Case Work."
